DEMOCRATS NOT PLEASED

Carlisle a Possibility Because Re publicans Would Prefer Him to Any Other Democrat, But Silver Men Are Embittered-Hon. John W. Yerkes the Probable Choice.

The result of the election in Kentucky leaves the question of a successor to Senator Blackborn still in doubt, with the balance in favor of a Republican. If there had been the decided Democratic victory anticipated by the party leaders it was possible for the

For one thing there is a great deal of dis-satisfaction among Democrats over his con-duct of the Campaign. It is complained that he made a number of unwise speeches winding up after the election with his bom-hast at Lexington about Bryan having been ciected and the determination not to have the decision of 1876 repeated.

There was no argument, it is alleged by the discontents, in any of his speeches. He simply tried to carry the election by sweep-ing assertions which would not stand inig assertions which would not stand in-estigation and to drive his opponents from the field by braggart talk of what the Demo-trats were able to do-ALL SOUND AND FURY.

ALL SOUND AND FURY.

The orntory was made up of sound and glittening generalties, a glowing mass of words that convinced nobody of anything. At the same time he seemed to have lost that personal magnetism which heretofore has drawn friends to him from every side and made supportersof men who by conviction or interest were disposed to be his op-

Another charge is that in the many the fight he seemed sudienly to give up and withdrew to his home on the plea of sickness. All in all, the failure to carry the State is laid upon his shoulders. As a result, he is weaker now than ever, and a rear ago he was unable to secure votes o return him here. He expected to gain to return him here. He expected to gain strength in this campaign.

The election then lies between a Republican and some Democrat upon whom Democrats and Populists can unite, unless there there are some changes, from the present outbook. It is considered probable if the Republicans have not a clear majority when the returns are all in that an effort will be made to elect Secretary Carlisle. There are many members of the legislature who would prefer blin to any man in either party. These are not all Democrats nor all Republicans.

Especially since the new alignment on all Republicans.

Especially since the new alignment on the money question has occurred, the Secretary has the good will of Republicans. If they cannot elect a Republican by their own votes, there are many of them who would prefer to see him again in the Senate to any other possible issue of the contest.

HATED BY THE SILVERITES.
On the other hand, there is a considerable body of silver Democrats who are very hitter toward Secretary Carliste because of the part be has taken in the of-feat of their heresy, and they would try to beat him at any cost. It is said these will make any trade with the Republicans to secure his defeat. They would give a straight-out Republican votes enough to elect him if this became necessary to defeat Mr. Carliste. This makes it probable that a Republican Senator will be chosen.
If that result should appear, Hon. John W. Yerkes of Lexington is most likely to be the man. Mr. Yerkes, as chairman of

W. Yerkes of Lexington is most likely to be the man. Mr. Yerkes, as chairman of the Republican State committee marshalled the Republican forces to victory in the elec-tion of Gov. Bradley a year ago. He also gave the party the largest delegation in Congress it has ever had. He became one of the most popular men of his party in the State.

then be able to think of political amountors. He has a large and horative law practice, and he believed that the demands upon his time essential to filling creditably the place of Senator would make it impossible to give his private business the necessary

There were at that time nearly a dozen other candidates in the field, including Gov. Bradley, Representatives Evans and Hunter and Mr. St. John Boyle, a wealthy attorney and railroad man, of Louisville. As none of these was able to win, it is con-sidered likely that Mr. Yerkes would accept if his election were presented as a solu-tion of the problem that would give his party another seat in the upper house.

Young Wife's Honor. Starke, Fla., Nov. 9.—To avenge the honor of his young wife, Arthur Roberts, shot and killed his brother, John Roberts, early Saturday morning. The tragedy took place in the western portion of Bedford county, and the parties involved are promi-

Arthur Roberts was called away from home, and, fearing he would be absent all night, he asked his brother to remain with Mrs. Roberts. The husband concluded his business earlier than was expected, and pearing his home shortly after midnight, he heard his wife utter a piercing scream.
He rushed in and found Mrs. Roberts prostrate on the floor and his brother bending over her. The brother ran, and the husband drew his pistol and pursued, firing at the

The first shot missed, but the second the tries and missen, but the second took effect and John Roberts fell. Then the outraged husband deliberately fired four bullets into the head of his false brother, shattering it completely. Mr. and Mrs Roberts have not been married long, and it seems that John married long, and it seems that John Roberts sought the lady's hand before she accepted his brother. Arthur Roberts, however, never knew that his brother loved Mrs. Roberts.

Mrs. Roberts, who is in a precarious condition, says that she was aroused from her sleep by her brother in-law, who made insulting proposals. She begged for mercy, but was seized by John Roberts, and then began the struggle, which ended by her being thrown to the floor, where she was lying when her husband arrived.

with one of a litter of kittens that the family cat was nursing.

Suddenly the leadous mother sprang at Stella with the fury of a tigress, and bit her on the forefinger of the right hand. Three days later the cat died, showing unmistakable evidence of hydrophobla. Up to that time Mr. and Mrs. Smith gave their child's wound no particular attention, simply applying the usual healing remedies.

The manner of the cat's death filled them with alarm, and a physician was at once summoned. He ordered that the girl be confined to a dark room, and since then she has not been permitted to see a then she has not been permitted to see a ray of light. Water is kept away from her, and the family have been warned to permit no running water within hearing of the room.

Today will be the eighteenth day since stella was bitten, and developments are anxiously awaited. The dector holds out hope that she is probably in a fair way to eliminate t' 2 poison from her system, but the parents are not so sanguine.

James Green, colored, adopted a novel and disgusting method of getting revenge upon his wife Saturday night. They quar-reled at their home in Jackson alley, and reled at their home in Jackson aliey, and the man finally produced a pint flask of whisky, and with the remark, "I'll get even with yoa," drained the contents. After committing this rash act Green walked briskly to the corner of North Capi-tol and H streets, and seized a tree box in front of Rover's grocery store for sup-port.
